

INSTRUCTIONS (For Authors):

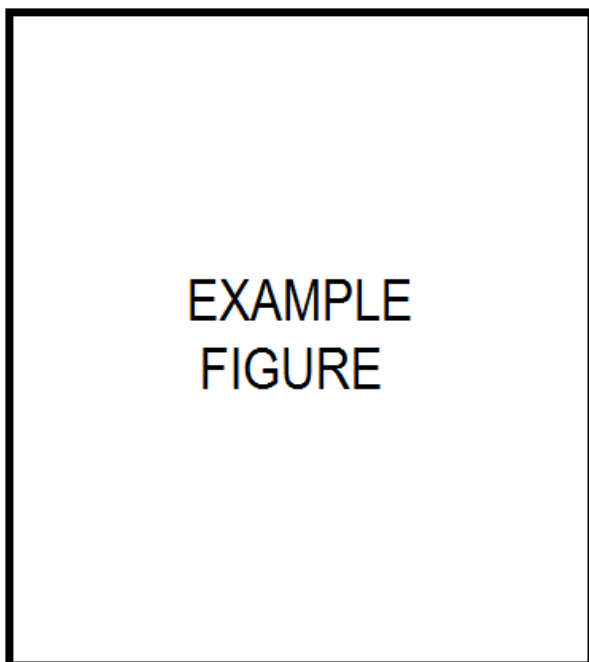

The 'WORD' file of the manuscript should be provided, in single column and double-spaced typing, on A4 size pages. The manuscript must be written in English and should not, normally, exceed 6,000 words.

The manuscript is expected to be written in correct and easily readable English. Both English and American spellings are acceptable, but each paper is expected to follow one style consistently.

The metric system is to be used throughout and if it is necessary to quote other units then these should be added in parentheses.

All figures, tables and equations should be numbered and referred in the text. When referring to figure, table or equations numbers, please use Figure, Table or Equation in full, followed by the number. Figures, tables and equations must be provided within the text.

An example of Figure 1 is given as follows,

An example of Table 1 is given as follows,

Table 1: Example

Example	Example
Example	Example

An example of Equation (1) is given as follows,

$Example = Example$	(1)

Equation and its number must be enclosed within a table as shown above.

The use of unnecessarily complicated notation and formulae should be avoided and the material should be presented in the simplest possible manner.

References should be provided in 'Vancouver Style' and each reference must be referred into the text. Please provide DOI for all the references, if available. A reference is provided as an example [1].
